EVERY AMERICAN NEEDS THE STANDARD HISTORY OF HIS OWN COUNTRY.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE

Has secured the entire first edition of the new great Standard History of the United States, and by forming subscribers into clubs sells single copies for one-third less than the regular price, and upon easy terms, and readers of the Intelligencer are invited to take advantage of this offer. After years of preparation

Scribner's History OF THE United States

Is complete, 3,600 pages, 1,600 illustrations, costing alone more than $100,000. It is the only large work (notwithstanding the many excellent small histories) which is full, brought down to date, superbly illustrated, meeting all the demands of intelligent American families. The plan of the History was laid by William Cullen Bryant, the text written by Sidney Howard Gay, Noah Brooks, Edward Everett Hale, Horace E. Scudder, Rosseter Johnson, and many other specialists.

PRICES ARE ADVANCING.

A large part of the entire first edition which the Tribune secured has been subscribed for, but all who join a Tribune Club now (no club fee) can have the set delivered for $2.00 down and $2.00 a month for nine months—about 7 cents a day. Readers have ordered the leather binding usually. It costs $1.00 a month more, but it will last a lifetime. NO RISK.—It is impossible to describe this book in a limited space. We are so confident of its value we offer to send it upon approval. Return the book if not satisfactory. Fill out the following blank and mail AT ONCE.

REMEMBER—This set of books is for sale nowhere else. The Tribune has the entire edition. Order quickly or the edition may be exhausted.

HIS BIRTHDAY.

One Hundred and Sixty-fifth Anniversary of the Birth of

"THE FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY"

Will be Celebrated in Wheeling on More Than the Usual Modest Scale—Carroll Club is the Prime Mover, but Other Organizations will Also Observe the Day. Hometown League will Hold a Meeting. Other Features of the Day.

Little George with his hatchet Once cut down the cherry tree, But he'll cut a greater figure In this evening's jollity.

The Carroll Club opening this evening will be an elaborate affair, and incidentally, the Father of His Country will be fittingly remembered. The entertainment will take place in the new auditorium, which has been rushed to completion for the event. Everything has been brought up to a high finish, and the audience to-night will be struck by the brilliancy of the scene that greets them on every side.

The theatre is a model in architecture and comfort, and yesterday the members of the club who viewed it were pleased beyond their highest expectations. It is commodious, bright and cheerful, and is destined to be in demand for future entertainments. The stage is well adapted for theatrical entertainments, having all the modern accessories. There are nine sets of scenery, and the drop curtain is a work of scenic art, representing an ancient Irish castle upon the banks of the Lakes of Killarney. To either side of the stage are handsomely furnished ladies' and men's dressing rooms.

The auditorium and gallery are finished in yellow pine, and are seated with the latest style of opera chairs, made of bright maple, and so arranged as to be easily removed. The floor is of oak, and will make an ideal floor for dancing. There are nearly seven hundred chairs, but one thousand people can be seated at a rush.

The lighting facilities are admirable. From the dome in the ceiling there is a circle of twenty electric lights. On the walls there are combination electric fixtures. The stage has three head-lights and a row of footlights. The brilliant illuminations will further enhance the light woodwork, and the bronzed steam radiators which gird the walls. The decorating committee has not been idle, and the stars and stripes are very much in evidence. Beautiful silken flags and banners are hung around the walls and the display betokens the national holiday.

On the basement floor, the dining room stands ready to accommodate the guests this evening. It is large and well arranged, combining with the kitchen in the rear. The ladies in charge have completed their plans, and vow that no one hungry will evade their grasp to-night.

All indications point to a very large attendance. Yesterday afternoon, but fifty tickets remained unsold, a fact which probably will cause the club to dispose in different parts of the city have gone with a rush, and at the club house, seats are reserved without extra charge. Ushers have been selected and the opening bids fair to be auspicious of more brilliant functions in the future. The old hall leading to the theatre has been skillfully re-papered with rich Moorish paper and Japanese leather. The library has also been similarly treated. Hence, a dazzling surprise is in store for those attending to-night.

The first part of the programme will consist of musical and literary selections, followed by a short comedy. This will be succeeded by a promenade concert and dancing. The concert programme follows:

Overture.....Opera House Orchestra
Address.....The President
Presentation of the Portraits.....
Dance Triang (Gypsy Dance).....

"The Washington's Birthday."

To-day being Washington's birthday the fact will not be lost sight of, if the numerous festive events count for anything. Besides the observance of the day by the closing of banks and schools and public institutions, many organizations will honor the day this evening. Among the events are the following, and for which great preparations have been made:

Mercantile Club hop, at its rooms on Main street.
La Belle Lodge, A. O. U. W., Twenty-third anniversary entertainment at Pythian castle.
Carroll club opening, at the club's headquarters on Chapline street.
Bi-metallic League celebration at Lange building on Market street.
Wheeling Turnverein's annual masquerade ball, at Turner hall, North Market street.

Bimetallies to Celebrate.

This evening the Bi-metallic League will celebrate Washington's birthday, at the hall in the Lange building, on Market street. The exercises will consist of patriotic addresses, the principal speaker being Colonel W. W. Arnett.

Epworth League to Observe.

The Epworth League of the Fourth Street M. E. church will observe Washington's birthday this evening at the church, when a pleasing programme will be rendered. Patriotic selections and songs will figure prominently.

Two were Injured.

Andrew A. Sundek and J. C. Waddell, two employees of the Joseph Speldeck Grocery Company, were painfully injured in a runaway accident, which occurred on South Jacob street yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock. While they were raising the cover of the buggy, the horse became frightened, at the corner of Thirty-third and Jacob streets and, breaking away, dashed up Jacob street, throwing both the occupants out. Both were slightly injured, and were taken to their homes by Lieutenant Clemans. Sundek is injured internally.

DEATH OF HENRY PESCHAU.

A Venerable Resident of the South Side Passes Away—Well Known in Musical Circles.

Yesterday morning at his home on Wood street, below Thirty-seventh, South Side, Mr. Henry Peschau, a venerable resident of the Eighth ward, passed away.

On the Haris mountains in Hanover Germany, in the twin city, Chapin-Zellerfeld, Mr. Henry Peschau was born November 18, 1832. His father, Ferdinand Peschau, was an under-officer in the artillery service and an under-boss in the silver mines. Having grown to manhood, he was married in 1847, and in 1854 the young couple crossed the Atlantic ocean for America, in the good old ship, "North Carolina," Captain Foster. They reached Baltimore after a long and stormy voyage, a short time before Christmas.

Early in 1855 they came to Wheeling, and the family has been here ever since. In the days gone by Mr. Peschau was a member of different musical organizations, playing both with brass bands and orchestras. Five years he was employed in the La Belle coal works, and superintended the construction of its air shaft in Caldwell's run. He was one of the oldest residents in the Eighth ward. Having suffered for years, he suddenly became seriously ill about a week ago, and yesterday morning, shortly before 4 o'clock, breathed his last. His age was seventy-three years and three months. He was a quiet citizen and a life-long Republican.

About twenty years ago his wife died. There were but two children in the family and both survive the father. One is Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, D. D., pastor of a Lutheran church in Greensburg, Pa., and the other Mrs. Augusta Fuhr, a widow, who resided with the father, and cared for him until he died.

Rev. Dr. Peschau and daughter, Miss Linda, arrived in the city yesterday, at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Peschau, who is 75 years of age, has few relatives in this country. Among these there are Dr. Herman Peschau, Nebraska; Mr. T. Zimmerman, master mechanic of the Baltimore & Ohio shops at Martinsburg, and Hon. E. Peschau, the German consul at Wilmington, N. C., who are cousins of the deceased.

DEATH OF MRS. JUNKINS.

A Bridgeport Woman Whose Unassuming Deeds of Charity were Notable.

At 7:15 o'clock "Saturday" morning, Mrs. Alice A. Junkins, passed from a life that had by its many Christian acts, endeared her to all who knew her. In her family and social relations she was genial and companionable. To the humble and friendless she was generous and charitable, and with a genuine heartful pity and kindness would always seek to better the condition of the poor and unfortunate without giving offense by public display. Her every day life was filled with noble, generous Christian deeds, which were never referred to by herself, but are attested by the eloquence of the love and affection others felt for her. She had been reared in the Quaker church, and not being orthodox in religious belief, the performance of her many Christian virtues was not forced or impelled by a mere sense of duty, but sprang spontaneously from the warm impulses of a genuine Christian nature. She leaves a husband, Mr. S. A. Junkins, and three children, Mrs. W. T. Junkins, Mrs. J. A. Topping and Mr. C. A. Junkins, who have the sympathy of friends in their loss. The funeral services will be held at the family residence on Lincoln avenue, in Bridgeport, at 1:30 o'clock to-day. The interment will be at Linwood cemetery.

Funeral of Mr. A. S. Harden.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral of the late Albert S. Harden occurred from the residence of his niece, Mrs. George Wise, Woodlands, east of the city. Rev. Dr. Swope, of St. Matthew's church, officiated. The music was by Mrs. George B. Caldwell and Mrs. Peables Tatum. Relatives of the deceased from this city and Steubenville, acted as pallbearers. The interment at Greenwood, was private.

Tribute of Respect.

In memory of Mrs. Annie Sinclair Cunningham, who was for ten years president of the board of lady managers of the West Virginia Home for Aged and Friendless Women.

Only those who have been closely connected with this charity and have since its organization, can fully understand how completely this dear and honored woman has filled the position of president of this board. They alone can appreciate the years of untiring labor, of never ceasing interest, of untiring faith, always cheerful, enthusiastic, and full of trust in Him, "whom she was and whom she served," she was a constant inspiration to those who labored with her. Through many discouragements and countless trials, her ardent and never failing faith, and her clear courage, she has given to this work, always cheerful, enthusiastic, and full of trust in Him, "whom she was and whom she served," she was a constant inspiration to those who labored with her. Through many discouragements and countless trials, her ardent and never failing faith, and her clear courage, she has given to this work, always cheerful, enthusiastic, and full of trust in Him, "whom she was and whom she served," she was a constant inspiration to those who labored with her.

WAS NEVER SO CLEAN BEFORE.

The New Method of Cleaning the Paved Streets a Success.

The new method adopted by the board of public works for cleaning the brick paved streets in the business portion of the city has excited considerable discussion among citizens. Some say that the force of the stream from the fire hose will injure the paving, but this belief is not justified, for an examination of the brick paving on Market street, which was cleaned so effectively on Saturday night, shows that no injury has been inflicted. On the other hand, it is generally acknowledged that the method was better so clean as it was yesterday after the novel cleaning it received Saturday night.

In speaking of the bright appearance of the main thoroughfare, caused by the cleaning it received, Dr. Charles Lincoln Smith, the eye specialist, now at the McLure, told a reporter something of the cleaning of the streets in western cities. Were it not for the slum in silver, which has knocked the bottom out of business, the doctor would now be in Denver instead of Wheeling.

"Denver," said the doctor, "is a city of hills and beautiful streets. They use asphalt here and the paving is as clean as the floor in this hotel lobby. It is interesting to note that the Denver authorities use the same system for cleaning their streets that your board of public works has just inaugurated here—water from a fire hose. The old method of taking away the dirt with a shovel and cart is entirely done away with. I am confident that your citizens will endorse the new system that has been adopted here."

THEIR NEW CHURCH.

Catholic Residents of Edginton's Lane Rejecting in the Filling of a Long-Felt Want.

The Catholic residents of Edginton's Lane are at last to have a place of worship in their immediate neighborhood. They have been prevented from attending the chapel at Mt. de Chantal by the creek, and coming to the city also has its difficulty. Their desire for a church having been laid before Bishop Donohue, he consented to their request, and promised to give them enough ground for a church, school and priest's residence.

A committee was then formed consisting of Peter Dieringer, Peter Horch, Walter Burk and Leopold Miller, to make arrangements for the new church. Rev. Father Cleuser, chaplain of Mt. de Chantal, received from the bishop the charge of preparing plans for the new pastorage, and immediately the collecting was begun. Bishop Donohue, the first donor, started the list with a contribution of $500, and the Catholics of Edginton's lane gave encouraging amounts. The committee hopes that the neighbors will aid them in their effort to erect a new church, which will be named St. Michael's.

In relation to the new pastorage the people are enthusiastic over the supper and benefit concert, the ladies propose giving in Seibert's pavilion on next Wednesday evening, over 600 tickets have already been sold. Prof. George Bliz and Harry Menkemeller will appear in specialties, and two little children will render the piano selections. Concert music by the Grand Opera House band. The ladies promise all who come a good time and a square meal. The motor fare is reduced to fifteen cents for the round trip; special motor after 12 o'clock.

Twins in Size, Shape and Activity.

This is what those important little organs, the kidneys, are when healthy. In disorder they may differ in all three particulars. Disease usually destroys them successively, not simultaneously, and one may be active while the other is semi-paralyzed. Give to both a healthy impulse, without exciting them, with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which forestalls such dreadful maladies as Bright's disease and diabetes. Use the Bitters, also for rheumatism, neuralgia, nervous, bowel and kidney trouble.

THE SHAKERS' IDEAS OF MEDICINE.

Now a days when a man goes to his doctor, he is usually told that he has some unheard of disease with a long name, and when he leaves the office he does not know whether it is St. Vitus Dance or consumption that is gradually undermining his health.

It is therefore refreshing to talk with the Shakers, for their very simplicity commands confidence and respect, and we have the further satisfaction of knowing that they have devoted themselves to the study of disease and its cure for more than a hundred years.

The venerable old man whom the writer saw was only too glad to discuss his pet subject. He said that strange as it might seem, very few doctors realized that three-quarters of the most prevalent diseases were all attributable to faulty digestion.

He then went on to say that a child of average intelligence knows that putrid meat or decaying vegetables are poisonous, and must be avoided, and yet these same foods, even if taken into the stomach in the freshest condition, soon decompose unless digested and absorbed.

In such cases the resulting poisons enter the system, when aches and pains, weakness and debility soon follow as a natural consequence.

It was recognition of this that led the Shakers to devote their energies to the perfection of a product which would stimulate the digestive organs and assist them to perform their proper work.

The first symptom of disordered digestion is the loss of appetite, and the Shaker Digestive Cordial is wonderfully efficient in supplying any deficiency in this respect, at the same time it relieves all distress after eating. Furthermore, as was carefully explained by our venerable friend, it is absolutely harmless.

Better evidence of the Shakers' confidence in it could not be found, than in the fact that they have placed 10-cent sample bottles in the hands of all druggists, assured that if one tried it, it will produce an immediate and marked benefit that it will be continued.
